(CUBAN RAIDERS)

NEW YORK--STUDENTS FROM THREE GREATER BOSTON COLLEGES AND SEVERAL OTHER UNIVERSITIES REPORTEDLY ARE SPENDING THEIR WEEKENDS AND VACATIONS STAGING COMMANDO RAIDS ON CUBA TO ARM AND SUPPLY ANTI-CASTRO GUERRILLA FIGHTERS.

ALEXANDER I. RORKE JR., A 36-YEAR-OLD LECTURER AND FREE LANCE TV REPORTER, MADE THE DISCLOSURE LAST NIGHT ON AN ABC TV INTERVIEW PROGRAM. HE IDENTIFIED HIMSELF AS A LEADER OF A BAND OF 200 AMERICANS WHO ARE SUPPLYING ARMS TO THE UNDERGROUND.

RORKE SAID 23 STUDENTS FROM HARVARD, MIT, BOSTON COLLEGE, PRINCETON, INDIANA AND MIAMI (FLA.) UNIVERSITIES HAVE PARTICIPATED IN AT LEAST 15 MISSIONS SINCE THE ILL-FATED BAY OF PIGS INVASION TWO YEARS AGO.

THEY LANDED AGENTS, ARMS, AMMUNITION AND SUPPLIES AT LAS VILLAS, MANTANZAS AND ORIENTE PROVINCES, HE SAID.

DURING FIVE OF THE MISSIONS THEY WERE FIRED ON BY CASTRO SUPPORTERS BUT NONE OF THE COLLEGE STUDENTS WAS INJURED, HE SAID.

RORKE SAID HIS 36-FOOT BOAT VIOLYNN III WAS USED DURING THE MISSIONS. THE VIOLYNN FIRED ONLY IN DEFENSE, HE SAID. THE BOAT WAS SEIZED EARLIER THIS WEEK BY A BRITISH BOAT IN THE BAHAMAS.
